

South Kentuckian.

HOPKINSVILLE, JULY 16, 1882

Democratic State Ticket.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals THOS. J. HENRY,
OF MORGAN COUNTY.

For Judge of the Court of Appeals
JOS. H. LEWIS,
OF BARKEN COUNTY.

For Judges of Superior Court
JAMES H. BOWDEN,
OF LOGAN COUNTY.

(SECOND DISTRICT.)
ADOLPHUS E. RICHARDS, OF JEFFERSON COUNTY.

(THIRD DISTRICT.)
RICHARD REID, OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

FOR COUNTY JAILER,
AQUILLA B. LONG

"Arabia Day" is what one of the Purchase papers calls the Egyptian general. "She is fame."

Geo. D. White must overcome a Democratic majority of 313 to be elected in the Tenth District.

Geo. Triplett is poking fun at the fact of the Owensboro girls. He says

Owensboro is the Chicago of Kentucky.

Col. Jno. F. Hense, of Tennessee, declines to be a candidate for re-election to Congress from the Clarksville district.

Neither of the Democratic nominees for Superior Court Judges has ever held a judicial office and all of the defeated men who had served on the bench.

It is rumored that Jno. B. Gaines will rise Phoenix like from the ashes of his three Worlds, and will shortly begin the publication of a weekly paper in Louisville.

Cole the circus man, offers a handsome silver service to the couple that will be married on the back of his big elephant at his exhibition in Kansas City, Mo. Does he want them to be hide bound?

Mr. M. V. Ingram will begin the that ex-Rebels had lived upon the fat of the land. He said Henry was nominated upon his war record and that Wolford was defeated because he was an ex-Union Soldier. After an hour or more of such stuff he gave place to Mr. Clark, who, in his own peculiar and laughable way, forthwith proceeded to mop up the ground with the doughty Colonel. He showed up the inconsistency of Col.

Mellency's course, in having espoused the cause of Col. Wolford after his defeat, when he voted for a Rebel Colonel in the Convention and against Wolford. He showed the Jacob movement up in its true colors to the infinite delight and amusement of the large audience, and when he desisted hardly a greasy spot of Col.

Mellency was left. He made but a feeble attempt to answer Mr. Clark and then turned his attention to Capt.

Gaines, who was present, and who had "put up the job on him." Capt.

Gaines began to take notes with a view of replying, but Col. Mellency evidently did not intend to let him do so, and he continued, as Polk

Johnson would say, like Tennyson's brook, to "run on, forever on," and before he stopped the 1 o'clock train, upon which Capt. Gaines had to return, whistled and he had to leave the Colonel still haranguing the crowd. His speech was a total failure, so far as getting votes for Jacob was concerned.

STATE NEWS.

Dan Rice is in the State again with a cane. Willie Bease-Kenton county-toy pistol.

Thomas Zeek was killed while loading cars at Ashland.

The Herald says there is not a vacant house in Hartford.

Mayfield defeated a special school tax by a majority of 24 votes.

O. P. Keown, Republican candidate for jailer of Ohio county, has withdrawn from the race.

Col. Thos. L. Jones is speaking in the eastern counties, at the request of the State Central Committee.

The Owensboro Board of Councilmen killed the bucket shops by imposing an annual fine of $500 upon them.

Jno. A. Mayes, independent candidate for county judge of Graves county, has withdrawn from the race.

Dr. W. T. Alphas, alias Dagan, confined in the Danvers county jail for bigamy, professed religion, and was expelled in jail by Rev. Dr. Hays, a Methodist minister, last week.

Silas D. Baker, at Lawrenceville, shot

Chas. Bryant, aged 19, because he threatened to kill him for refusing to allow him to marry his daughter.

Bryant was not hurt much and has left the country.

Jim Hall the colored candidate for coroner of Muhlenberg county has withdrawn from the race, and the Echo thinks a pressure was brought to bear upon his pocket by white republicans.

John Bash, the colored mariner under sentence of death at Lexington, has been granted a suspension of his death sentence until the Supreme court meets in October. The ground for suspension is that no negroes were on the jury that convicted him.

The Owensboro Messenger says

Charlie Dovey, who was rubbed of his watch at the Dorey coal mines in Muhlenberg county a few days before the Mammoth Cave robbery in 1880, has recovered the watch from amongst plunder left by Jesse James. He was invited to head the watch over at the muzzle of Jesse's pistol, while Wool Hite watched at the door. They expected to get the money sent to settle with the miners on "pay day," but the train was late and the money amounting to $3,000 that they would have secured was thereby saved. No one thought at this time that the robber was the greatest outlaw of the age.
